

InterACTING Together! Addressing Academic, Social, and Pragmatic Skills

Co-taught by: Andrea Aflalo, M.Ed., and Taylor Thorp, MA, CF-SLP

For students entering grades 2-5/ages 7-11; Class size will be limited to 10 (minimum 8).

Note: This program is best suited for children who do not require 1-on-1 support.

In an engaging and relaxed environment, this exciting new summer class will include scripted and improvised theater activities and games! Your child will participate in fun ways to express self in creative ways and to improve social interaction skills. Acting promotes self-confidence, self-awareness, teamwork and so much more!

Students will participate in:

- ✓ Scripted and improvised skits/dialogues
- ✓ Scriptwriting
- ✓ Reader's theater
- ✓ Mime
- ✓ Puppetry
- ✓ Characterization, vocalization, and movement activities
- ✓ Prop design and creation*

These activities integrate speech and language skills by practicing articulation, voice, expressive language, social-emotional communication, and pragmatic skills.

InterACTING Together! will also support your child in keeping up with and boosting essential academic skills in reading, writing, and math in a most DRAMATIC way!

*Props will be made in class or students may be requested to bring in easily found household items.
